MaiFS representatives at MAPAAC Leaders Planning Forum!

MaiFS president Swatee Kulkarni and board members, Anjali Sharma and Asim Alavi represented MaiFS at the Michigan Asian Pacific American Affairs Commission (MAPAAC) APA Leaders Planning Forum on Nov 13th. This forum was organized for APA organizations to share their initiatives and plans for the year 2020 and seek collaboration from other agencies

Swatee Kulkarni shared that MaiFS plans for 2020 include being steadfast in our commitment to provide prevention and intervention services in the areas of domestic violence, substance abuse etc. In addition, MaiFS plans to focus on updating senior services and outreach programs. Several APA organizations including American Korean Association, BAPAC, Asian Center of SE Michigan, EMU Center for Health Disparities Innovation and Studies etc. have expressed interest in collaboration with MaiFS.

Welcome our new team members!!!

- Mr. Ajeet Kulkarni, MaiFS Board Secretary
- Mr. Murali Nair, STOP Grant Program, Lead Program Manager
- Ms. Manisha Rathod, STOP Grant Program, Program Manager.

MaiFS team is excited and pleased to have you all on board.
